

Howard Parmet

ESC Consultant Since: 2013

Education:

MSW, Yeshiva University

BA in International Relations, University of Minnesota

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Coaching, Fund Development, Board Development, Community Relations

FOR-PROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Howard was a consultant for Daybar Management Consultants, working primarily with nonprofit clients such as the Jeffrey Foundation and One Generation. Howard's responsibilities were generalized nonprofit management, including board development and executive leadership coaching.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Howard has worked as a fundraising consultant for Buechel Patient Care Research and Education Fund, Inc. Simultaneously, he was the Major Gifts Officer at Cal State University, Northridge, establishing marketing campaigns, donor recognition programs and donor tracking systems.

Howard spent 15 years as Executive Director of Friends of Magen David Adom (Israeli Red Cross). He then continued his work for the Red Cross as a Special Consultant, focusing on community relations and branding. In 2005, Howard became the CEO of the Foundation for Camp Max Straus, a non-denominational, residential summer camp operated by Jewish Big Brothers Big Sisters of Los Angeles that focuses on developing leadership and community from a young age. There he supervised all levels of program staff and department heads.

Some of Howard's other work includes serving as the Executive Director of the Peninsula Jewish Community Center in San Francisco and as the Assistant Executive Director of the Jewish Community Center Association of Greater Los Angeles.

Howard was also a guest lecturer in community organization and political science at Cal State University, Northridge, University of Judaism, Hebrew Union College, Valley College and the University of La Verne.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: Long Beach Opera, St. Francis Center, Wells Fargo Executive Directors Leadership Institute (The Guidance Center, New Hope Grief Support Community)

INTERESTS: Travel, current events, politics, writing