

Jill Roth Spuehler

ESC Consultant Since: 2013

Education:

PhD in Social Ethics, University of Southern California
MA in Sociology, California State University, Northridge
BA in Sociology, California State University, Northridge

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Coaching, Strategic Planning, Organizational Restructuring, Leadership Development

FOR-PROFIT AND HIGHER EDUCATION EXPERIENCE: Jill has over 30 years of experience as a consultant, specializing in a bottom to top approach to strategic planning, decision making and revitalizing programs. As a consultant for Whittier College, Jill worked with the Director of the Scholar's program to evaluate and design a program for students to develop their own educational path. She also designed and coordinated a five-year strategic plan for Mount St. Mary's College.

Previously, Jill was the National Director of Management Development and Training for Public Storage, Inc. She created a training department, materials and programs for corporate employees and two levels of management. She also developed a "Train the Trainer Program" for regional counterparts.

Jill taught Sociology in the interdisciplinary department of Social Relations and in the Graduate Psychology Program at Immaculate Heart College.

NONPROFIT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: As an executive consultant with Management Design Inc., and as an independent contractor, Jill worked with two religious communities in planning changes in their mission and organizational structure.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: Jill has worked in planning and evaluation with Habitat for Humanity and coached their Regional Director. Jill also assisted Hope-Net in Board development and worked with La Casa de Maria, a Retreat and Conference Center.

EXAMPLES OF ESC CLIENTS: The Jewish Federation, YWCA Santa Monica/Westside, SHARE!, American Jewish University

INTERESTS: Reading, golf, music, walking, Jill is a member of The PLATO Society of Los Angeles