

Philip Young

ESC Consultant Since: 2013

Education:

BA in Russian Language and Literature, University of California, Los Angeles

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Technology, Needs Assessment, Specifications, Implementation, Project Management

FOR-PROFIT AND GOVERNMENT EXPERIENCE: Philip has over 35 years of experience with Xerox Corporation, focusing on the development of computer systems for customers whose needs could not be met by standard Xerox products. He was involved in the entire life cycle of these custom systems from business development to implementation and delivery. As a result, Philip was involved in initial engagements with prospective customers, high-level system design, the writing of proposals and technical documentation, software development, management of projects to schedule and budget, delivery and support.

In addition to running projects, Philip had various supervisory roles including the management of 50 electrical, mechanical, and software engineers.

While at Xerox, Philip also worked on a number of custom systems for various departments of the U.S. Government. These systems performed the automated analysis and distribution of secure email.

NONPROFIT VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE: As a volunteer, Philip served as the adjunct Treasurer of a branch of the Music Teachers' Association of California. In that capacity, he prepared monthly reports for the board meeting, reviewed all income and expenditures and participated in the planning and budgeting for each year.

Phil is on Executive Service Corps Consultant's Advisory Council. He has also supported ESC in internal database projects.
